Thank you for taking this test. I certify that the test has been scored with the utmost objectivity, accuracy, and sincerity, and this raw score is a true reflection of your performance on the test. I also certify that great care is taken to recognize and correctly treat possible alternative valid answers, ensuring that you do not undeservedly miss points. It is not uncommon for one's score to be lower than expected. Correspondence about score, answers, or contents of the test is not possible.

If you present this report to officers of I.Q. societies or other third parties, they may contact me to verify its authenticity. No other information than that contained in this report will be revealed to them, and under no other circumstance will your information be made available to any one.
